Department of Education
Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services, National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research--Rehabilitation Research and Training Centers (RRTC) Program

Program: Priority 1--Aging-Related Changes in Impairment for Persons Living With Physical Disabilities

The purpose of the priority is to generate new knowledge regarding the characteristics, prevalence, and distribution of these changes, their interrelationships with lifestyle and environmental factors, and their consequences on health, activity, and participation across the life span. The priority seeks to improve rehabilitation outcomes by encouraging innovative interventions aimed at preventing or minimizing the impact of aging-related changes on the well-being and productivity of persons with physical disabilities. The RRTC is required to conduct significant and substantial cross- disability research and is encouraged to collaborate with one or more institutions, for the purposes of ensuring inclusion of multidisciplinary expertise across disability groups, and sufficient sample size and methodological rigor to generate robust findings.

Priority 2--Personal Assistance Services

This priority supports one Rehabilitation Research and Training Center on PAS. The purpose of this priority is to support methodologically rigorous collaborative research to generate new knowledge that informs service delivery providers and policymakers regarding the need for and provision of PAS at the worksite, in the community, and in home-based settings for individuals with physical, sensory, cognitive, psychiatric, and multiple disabilities. The activities are the following:

- ✓ To identify or develop, or both, evaluate, and disseminate best practices for PAS at the worksite to facilitate employment of individuals with disabilities who need such accommodations;
- ✓ To identify or develop, or both, evaluate, and disseminate best practices for PAS in community- and home-based settings to facilitate maximum integration and participation by working-age and older adults with disabilities;
- ✓ To conduct research on the PAS workforce and workforce development that reflects geographic diversity and addresses PAS workforce recruitment, retention, compensation and benefits; professional training, development, and networking, for PAS providers, including communication between individual, group, public and private PAS providers; and crossover issues between disability and aging providers;
- ✓ To identify and analyze existing model State and Federal PAS policies and programs, and develop a database to inventory the results.

Funds: Priority 1--Aging-Related Changes in Impairment for Persons Living with Physical Disabilities- $700,000 (one award)

Priority 2--Personal Assistance Services-$900,000 (one award)

Deadline: September 30, 2002.

Eligible: States, public or private agencies, including for-profit agencies, public or private organizations, including for-profit organizations, institutions of higher education,

Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program and William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program

Program: The HEA authorizes the Secretary, contingent upon the availability of annual appropriations, to undertake a loan forgiveness demonstration program for borrowers under the FFEL and the Direct Loan programs who have received an associate's or bachelor's degree in early childhood education or child care and who are providing full-time child care services in child care facilities that serve certain low income communities. The child-care provider loan forgiveness demonstration program is intended to bring more highly trained individuals into the early childcare profession and to retain those providers for longer periods of time.

Funds: Total funds available: $1,000,000.

Eligible: (A) To qualify for the child care provider loan forgiveness demonstration program, an applicant must:

- ✓ Be a new borrower with eligible loans, in the FFEL or Direct Loan Programs, as defined in the "Program Definitions" section of this notice;
- ✓ Have received an associate or bachelor's degree in the field of early childhood education or child care that was awarded by an institution of higher education after October 7, 1998; and
- ✓ After receiving an associate's or bachelor's degree in early childhood education or child care, have worked full-time for at least two consecutive years preceding the year during which forgiveness is requested as a child care provider in a facility that serves a low- income community.

(B) A borrower may not receive benefits for the same child care service under both subtitles D of title I of the National and Community Service Act of 1990 (AmeriCorps) and this demonstration program. Renewal Applicants Who Received a Partial Forgiveness in FY 2001: (A) To qualify for further loan forgiveness under the Child Care Provider Loan Forgiveness Demonstration Program, a borrower must:

- ✓ Have been determined previously to meet the eligibility requirements for a forgiveness as described in this notice and continues to meet those criteria; and
- ✓ Have completed the third consecutive year of full-time employment as a provider in a child care facility that serves a low- income community.
